Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion; Human behavior and Changing Mindsets

Purpose of this paper

Introduction and background of the topic. Outline the reasons/objectives for writing the paper

Design/methodology/approach

List how are the objectives achieved? Include the main method(s) used for the study, tools used and the sample design. What is the approach to the topic, and what is the theoretical or subject scope of the paper?

Findings

Elucidate on the Interpretations, conclusions and results of the research

Implications

- Research/Theoretical implications (if applicable)
What are the contributions to existing theories or constructs within a particular field? Your findings might support, challenge, or extend existing theories, which can lead to new insights or modifications in theoretical frameworks.
- Practical implications (if applicable)
What outcomes and implications for practice, applications and consequences are identified? All papers should have practical applications. What changes to practice might be made as a result of this research/paper?
- Societal implications (if applicable)
State the broader impact of your research on society, communities, or specific groups of people.

Original value of paper

What is new and innovative in the paper? Highlight the contribution of the paper to future research directions
